LAW AND ORDER IN NEWTOWN, L. I.

AN EFFORT TO SECURE HONEST OFFICIALS AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

The citizens of Newtown, L. I., are making a determined effort to secure the closing of the liquor-shops during the hours in which they are forbidden to be open by law, and to prevent incursions of law-breakers from Brooklyn and Hunter's Point on Sundays. Within the last pear the Law and Order Association has been organized. The Rev. George H. Payson is prosident, John P. Prall, vice-president, Abraham Proctor, jr., secretary, and John H. Prall, treasurer. Committees of three each for Newtown and for the villages of Corone, Winfield, Maspeth and Woodside, which are within the town limits, have been looking after violations of the law, with a view to bringing offenders to justice.

Last evening a meeting was held under the auspices of the association, at which stirring addresses were made by the Rev. Dr. Samuel Cox, Joseph B. Denton, the Rev. Charles I. Shepard, W. R. Prall, John H. Prall. Thaddeus Firth, the Rev. George H. Payson, the Rev. William Peek, G. R. Lyman, S. B. Guernsey and others. It was stated that 117 grogshops had been licensed during the year, and many more were open without fleense. Gustavus Baylis and William Kirkpatrick were unanimously nominated respectively for Excise Commissioner and Justice of the Pence, and committees were appointed to present their names to the town conventions of the Republican and Democratic parties. There was some discussion as to whether nonimations could properly be made under the by-laws, in which the object of the association is declared to be "to secure to Newlown, by arousing a correct public opinion, by disseminating information, through the press or public meetings, and by the impartial enforcement of law, such good order and quiet as the laws of the State of New-York guarantee at all times and especially on Sunday," It was finally decided, however, in the affirmative. The town election will take place April 1, and the best results are hoped for by the friends of law and order who have collected a large fund which will be devoted to securing good government and enforcing the laws.

HOW TEMPERANCE CONVERTS ARE HELD. Denton, the Rev. Charles I. Shepard, instinate avoid properly be made under the by-laws, in which the object of the eventual property by enade under the by-laws, in the object of the eventual enforcement of law, such good order and quiet at the laws of the State of New-York guarantee at all times and especially on sunday." It was finally decided, however, and the affirmative. The town the howel for by the friends April 1, and order who have collected a large fund which will be devoted to securing good government and enforcing the laws.

HOW TEMPERANCE CONVERTS ARE HELD.

As the temperance agitation subsides in Montelair, N. J., it is replaced by a vigorous reform movement among the citizens. The result of the work of Maybee and Euglish was a pledge roll of nearly 1,160 members, and at the close of their work a Reform Club was organized, whose lose of their work a Reform Club was organized, whose lose of their work a Reform Club was organized, whose membership has now reached 300. The purpose of this eiths is not show to the reco-shops by substituting for them something equally attractive, without the lagar-drikking, "You cannot expect," said a presiment leader in the movement, "to both the reformed drinkers to their resolve unless you give them something in place of the dram-shope. They went there because of the dram-shopes. They went there because of the dram-shopes because in the lagrace of the dram-shopes. They went there because they desired a cheerful place in which to spend their evenings. Leave them with no place to go to and power of the club, containing a residuant and confer-comes, flees of newspapers and magazines, bowling-silves, passibly billiand rooms, and of the grounce, with which to purchase a house for the club, containing a re rooms and other games. When the guarantee fund is procured, it is expected that the establishment will be self-supporting.

The work arainst the groggeries is also pushed with enercy. Two of the liquor dealers have joined the Reform Cub and closed their shops. One of the proprietors said that she could not afford to lose her stock of liquors, and a member of the club purchased her entire supply of liquors and emplied it into the street, after which the place was closed and the owner enrolled on the placing list. In the other shops custom has greatly fallen off.

We have not made one half our regular sales this work, said the bar-keeper of a large shop. "If this sort of thing doesn't stop before long, we may as well shat up."

This afternoon a union Gospel temperance meeting will be held at Library Hall, Elizabeth. It will be addressed by Captain Sturdivant, and several clergymen and laymen. The Plainfield Reform Club is expected to be present. Captain Sturdivant spoke to an audience at Temperance Hall last night. The festival of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, of Newark, was closed hat evening with a concert.

The Vanny Men's Temperance Association of the evening with a concert.

The Young Men's Temperance Association of the Roman Catholic parish in the Orange valley is arranging for an entertainment.

A temperance meeting will be held at the Washington Birect Eaplist Church, in Orange, on Wednesday evening.

A DENIAL BY RUFUS HATCH.

In contradiction of the published dispatch from St. Paul, which charged Rufus Hatch with having violated his agreements in regard to the Yellowstone Park Improvement Company, the secretary of the Company, in behalf of Mr. Hatch, said yesterday:

pany, in behalf of Mr. Hatch, said yesterday:

Mr. Douglas seems to be laboring under a serious misapprehension, if he has been reported correctly. Mr. Hatch first made him a written proposition on February 15, and twenty days were allowed him to make an answer. The time expired on March 6, but a few days before that date, Mr. Douglas asked for an extension of ten days. Mr. Hatch replied by telegraph that he would wait ten days for a proposition from him. Mr. Hatch has received no later request for an extension of the time nor has he received any proposition from Mr. Douglas. The receiver of the company was appointed on March 10, four days after Mr. Hatch's proposition had expired. Mr. Hatch did not make the application for a receiver, but he suppressed the fact that a receiver had been appointed until March 18. The appointment therefore could not have interfered with Mr. Douglas's plans for the relief of the company, for neither the nor the porsons with whom he was negotiating knew anything about the matter until after the date names by him.

To this statement Mr. Hatch added:

To this statement Mr. Hatch added: If Mr. Douglas or anybody else can make a proposition satisfactory to me and the creditors, the company becomes solvent and the Coart will at once dissolve the receivership on proper application. Throwing aside Mr.
Douglas, I have no hesitation in saying that I would consider a proposition from Senator Vest, General Sheridan, any officer of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, William Endicott, jr., of Boston, or even any honest cowboy.

WESTERN BEEF TO BE "BOYCOTTED."

The Eastern Butchers' Protective Society met last night at No. 192 Third-ave, and organized. Robert Nicholson was elected president. This union is composed of the men actually engaged in killing beeves. Mr. Nicholson said that the organization intended to take action against Western dressed beef, which was taking away the local business. The recent interview with Mr. Away the local business. The recent interview with Mr. Armour, published in The Thisway, he said, proved that capitalist to be a thorough-going monopolist. He insisted that ether was use in the preparation and to the Injury of Western meat. It was decided to attach the organization to 'he Central Labor Union, to "boycott" dealers in Western dressed meat, and to hold a mass meeting at the 'coper Institute at an early date to agitate against the Western product.

FREEING HIS MIND IN HIS WILL,

The will of John G. Bethune, the late manager of "Blind Tom," was filed yesterday. He leaves his property to his father, and in case of his death the estate goes to the testator's sisters. Some time ago Mrs. Eliza Stutzbach or Bethune, sought a divorce from John G. Bethune, and the proceedings were pending when he died. Mr. Bethune states that he makes no provision for her, because she was not his lawful wife. He also leaves her nothing, on the ground of her conduct since her alleged marriage to him, particularly in divorce proceedings, and declares that she was only "a heartless adventuress actuat-ed solely by mercenary motives, and seeking to grasp and absorb my estate, the fruits of my own efforts and sav-ings during a bachelorhood of upwards of fitty years."

IS THIS MISSING MR. WHITMORES

A man who refused to give his name or answer any questions was found on Friday night acting strangely near the Erie tunnel, in Jersey City. He was held pending an investigation. Papers found in his pos-season led to the belief that he was George B. Whitmore, of No. 89 Warren-st, New-York. The following telegram was found among his papers:

THE WEEK IN SOCIETY.

THE PEOPLE ON A GALA OPERA NIGHT.

WEDDINGS PAST AND TO COME-DINNERS-THEA-TRE PARTIES-PROMISES OF THE FUTURE. Chief among the social diversions of the last week was the opera, and the performances were worthy of the attention bestowed on them. While there is so lit-tle else to attract the social world one can enjoy the luxury of a box, or seat, at the Metropolitan Opera House to its fullest extent. The extraordinary cast which produced "Les Huguenots" on Wednesday evening was sojoutners at the Ladice is a near-by winter resort, had the monotony of the place broken by Mr. Lincoin's monologue in the evening. Mrs. J. H. Purton entertained the Farmers' Club at luncheon at her bouse, No. 28 West Forty-third-st. Mrs. Henry Clews gave a dinner.

Though the opera dwarfed other incidents of Wednesday, the dinner party of Mrs. J. W. Minturn in Washington Square deserves mention. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ward, No. 15 East Ninth-st., entertained the Whist Club in the evening. Mr. Riddle read at Mrs. Stranaban's

One of the pleasantest evenings of the Thursday Evening Club was spent at Mrs. W. H. Draper's, the reading by Julian Hawtherne being thoroughly enjoyed. There was a good attendance of members at what is probably the final meeting of the club for this season. The Young Ladies' Tennis Club, which comprises the Misses Leavitt, Bird, Turnure, Otis, Duer, Elliott and others met for play in the afternoon at the court, Seventh-ave, and Forty-first-st. There are rumors that they will challenge some gentlemen players later in the season. Another incident of Thursday was the entertainment given by Mrs. Rutherfurd, of No. 6 East Forty-seventh-st., to her sewing class and their friends. Mr. and Mrs. John F. Dillon gave a large theatre party at Wallack's, followed by a supper and dance. On Friday there were dinner parties at Mrs. J. A. Ben-edict's, Mrs. Barreta's and other houses. Mrs. Told gave a luncheon party to sixty young ladies. The Fes-tina Lente Roller Skating Coterie held a meeting in the evening. The natural liking for this exercise has apparently been sufficient to keep the interest from flagging. But to this are added music by a band and social opportunities not to be despised by the young people.

Bail are in the hands of energetic committees inner the supervision of Mr. Leary, and there is sure to be a brilliant entertainment.

The arrangements for the Easter Work weddings are being completed. Miss Edith Jaffray will be married to Poultney Rigglow in the Rev. Dr. Hall's charten, and it is said that the wedding marches will be played by an orchestra. Percy R. Fyne, rr., will be the best man. There will be clight bridesmaids and eight ushers.

Miss Fanny Remsen will be married to Albert Ludium on Thursday of Easter Week. The bridesmaids will be the Misses Sallie. Lizzle and Georgie Remsen, Nellie and Bessie Webb and Miss LeRoy. Miss Wosherspoon will be married to Pondiction Rogers on Easter Monday, it being a church wedding with no reception. Brockholst Cutting will be the best man, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Wotherspoon, Miss May McChellan, Miss Adne Livingston and Miss Effle Borrowe. They will wear Nile green costumes and plak plumes in their colfarres. Miss Failer will be married to Robert Livingston on Easter Tuesday. The bridesmaids, who will be dressed in white satin and silver, will be the bisses Tailer, Bird, Livingston, Ervin, Wilson and Lansing. E. de Puyster Livingston will be the best man.

The engarement of Miss Sallie Mariè to James Jones was announced recently. It is said that Mrs. Brockholst Cutting and the Messrs. Cutting will soon sail for Europe.

SOCIAL LIFE IN WASHINGTON. DRAWING-ROOM RECEPTION AT THE WHITE HOUSE -PERSONAL.

Washington, March 22.-The drawing-room reception at the White House to-day was one of the pleasantest of the season and was attended by crowds of visitors, including many strangers, who more than all othersenjoy the opportunity given them to visit the President's home in this informal manner. Miss Folger left the city on Tuesday for Columbia, S. C., by order of her physician. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Susie Folger, and they expect to be absent about four weeks.

Aribur H. Masten, a nephew of the President, and Mrs.

Masten, are guests at the White House.

Miss Bouwell joined her father, ex-Secretary Bout-well, a few days ago, and with Miss Clarke and Miss Waters, of Groton, will make a visit here of a fortnight. Miss Clarke is the daughter of the late Captain Clarke, who commanded the two companies of the 6th Massachusetts Regiment fired on while passing through Baltimore in 1861. This is her first visit to Baltimore and Washing-ton.

THE FIRE KECOED.

A CANDLE FACTORY CONSUMED.

THE LOSS ESTIMATED AT $250,000-THREE TIMES IN FLAMES THIS WINTER.

The west side of the city was illuminated last evening by a fire which destroyed the Electric Candle Company's factory on the southeast corner of Thirteenth-ave, and Fourteenth-st. It was the most brilliaut and rapid fire which has occurred in the city in several months. The ruined factory was a strong four-story brick building, extending one hundred feet in Thirtcenthave, and one hundred and fifty feet in Fourteenth-st. It was erected about four years ago at a cost of $50,000 by V. W. McFarland, a lard manufacturer, who afterward failed in business. H. K. Thurber and William H. Popham & Co. purchased the building and established in it the Electric Candle Company, of which Mr. Trurber has en the president. About two hundred workmen left the building at 6 p. m. yesterday and Alexander Winters, superintendent of the factory, saw that everything appeared to be in order. Michael Gleason, the engineer, banked the fires in the four boilers and went away leaving the building in charge of a watchman. At the east end of the factory was a small beer shop kept by William Connell. The barkeeper in the shop was making change for John Gray, a workman in the factory, at 6:30 p. m., when they were startled by two lond explosions in the when they were startled by two lond explosions in the factory building. Smoke and flames were then issuing from the factory windows.

An alarm was sent out promptly, but before the first company of firemen responded the entire factory was on firely and the flames were bursting from the roof. A third alarm was sounded, but it was too late to save the factory. Large quantities of lard and candles were on each floor of the tuilding and the flames hereased in volume so rapidly that the walls were not strong enough to hold them. Connell's beer shop took fire and was consumed quickly. Gray, who had lingered in the shop, became confused by the smoke, and the firemen had to drag him out to save his life. Within fifteen minutes after the fire broke out the walls of the factory began to fall and in haif an hour the entire structure was in rains. The flames shot up to an unusual height and were exceedingly bright, so that they were visible in every part of fire looked life an immense torch. The smoke was almost white, and it drifted in a long column over the city in the direction of Hunter's Point. Few sparks rose from the rains after the walls fell. The hear from the flames was so intense for twenty minities that the firemen was so intense for twenty minities that the firemen was so intense for twenty minities that the firemen was so intense for twenty minities that the firemen could not remain near the building. The flumes shot up to an unusual height and were exceedingly bright, so that they were visible in every part of the city below Fifty-ninth-st. For a time the mass of fire looked like an innerse torch. The smoke was almost white, and it drifted in a long column over the city in the direction of Huntier's Foint. Few sparks rose from the runns after the walls fell. The heat from the flames was so intense for twenty minutes that the fremen could not remain near the building. Several felegraph poles in Thirteenth-ave, took fire and the wires fell to the ground. At one time the large lumber yard owned by Albert Hirsch, in Fourteenth-st., opposite the factory, was in danger, but little damage was done. The granite works of N. G. Walte & Co., at No. 547 West Fourteenth-st., also took fire, and were damaged to the extent of $100. Connell's beer shop was valued at $5.60. works 0. Connell's beer shop was valued at $5,600. The stock and machinery of the Electric Candle Company was entirely destroyed. They were valued at $20,000, and were insured for $150,000 in about thirty companies. The building was said to be insured for its full value, $50,000, William H. Pepham & Co. occupied the southwest corner of the factory, and had an independent business—the manufacture of land. Their loss was estimated at $50,000.

The cause of the fire was not known, but it was believed that the hames started in the cooper shop on the second story. The fire which consumed the factory was the third one which started in the building recently. A slight biaze occurred there on December 18, 1883, and last Wednesday night fiames again started in the building and caused a loss of $700. Each fire was said to be accidental.

FLAMES IN A COSTUMER'S SHOP. Three alarms of fire were sent out shortly after 8 o'clock last night from Thirteenth-st. and Fourth-ave., and considerable excitement was occasioned in the neighborhood by the engines stopping in close proximity to the Star Theatre. The fire was in the rear of No. 63 East Twelfth-st., occupied by Albert Eaves, costumer The flames started in the second floor, where Mr. Eaves and his employes were finishing costumes for the New Park Theatre. Thence they spread to the show-rooms. Dense volumes of smoke filled the building and prevented Dense volumes of smoke filled the building and prevented the inmates from escaping by means of the stairway. Mrs. Msxwell, living on the third floor, attempted to tump from the front window but was warned back by the crowd below. Captain McAdam, of the Life Saving Service, climbed a tree in front, of the house and found Mrs. Maxwell unconscious from the smoke. He descended with the woman by means of a ladder and was received with cheers by the crowd. The fire last-d about an hour. A few sparks set fire to some lumber in Skidmore's lumber-yard in Thirteenth-st., but little damage was done. Mr. Eaves said that his loss was $25,000, with $4,000 insurance. George Green, a tailor and dyer on the first floor, lost $500 by water. The building, owned by Mrs. August C. Field, was damaged $500. The cause of the fire was the upsetting of an eli stove among some material to be used for the costumes.

A BLAZE IN THE CAPITOL. WASHINGTON, March 22 .- At an early hour this morning fire was discovered in one of the vaults used for storing old paper, below the Senate folding-room. The blaze was easily extinguished. To prevent a recurrence of this danger, it was to-day decided to store all the waste paper on the senate side in the vanits outside the Capito, undernoath the terrace. The fire was spontaneous this morning.

A RAILROAD FREIGHT HOUSE BURNED. TROY, March 21.-The Delaware and Hudson Canal Company's freight house at Mechanicville was burned this morning. The house was neverbefore so full of freight as it was yesterday, and all the freight with the books and papers was entirely destroyed. Almost every merchant in Mechanicville lost something. The Still-water Mills had a large amount of baled cotton in the building.

LOSSES IN OTHER PLACES.

TRENTON, March 22.-John Taylor's hay press at flightstown was burned early this morning. The loss is $10,000; insurance $5,000.

Chattanooga, March 22.—The Tennessee axe handle factory in this city was burned this morning. Loss $13,000; insurance $3,000.

AN ATTACHMENT AGAINST MR. STETSON. The suit brought recently in the United States Court by Charles Coghlan against John Stetson, which was decided in favor of the former, was for three weeks' salary, amounting to $2,100. Stetson, however, secured a stay of proceedings. But Coghlan had been kept in enforced idleness for six weeks by Mr. Stetson, and kept in enforced identics for six eccasion in the Court of yesterday the first step in a second action in the Court of Common Pleas was taken by Cochlan. He obtained from Judge Beach an attachment against Stetson's property for the sum of $2,100 for salary due from December 17 to January 5. The attachment was granted on the ground that Mr. Stetson is a non-resident of the State, his homobalor in Residen.

ABANDONING HIS YOUNG WIFE,

with his two daughters by a former wife. Recently he left the hetel in debt for board to the amount of $200.

Justice White held an examination in his private room, and made an order that General Dockery should pay his wife $10 a week. This he consented to do, and he was paroled. He gave his age as forty-eight years, and said he lived at No. 64 West Twenty-eighth-st.

OBITUARY.

DR. EZRA ABBOT. Bosron, March 22 .- Dr. Ezra Abbot, of Harvard, died at Cambridge last night.

Besidos his more ambitious labors, Dr. Abbot was also a voluminous contributor to the periodical Biblical literature of the day, in Europe and America. He was a member of the America Bible Revision Committee, which assisted the English Bible Revision Committee, which assisted the English Bible Revision Committee in preparing the revised edition of the New Testament which was recently published. He was a man who loved learning for its own sake alone, and was quite connect that his labors should add to the fame of others, provided the cause of knowledge was thereby advanced. In the special department of Biblical literature he stood among the foremost scholars of the present day, and in textual criticism he was probably superior to any one in America. He was a man of singular modesty and disinteresteiness, and was endowed with an almost unlimited capacity for work. He possessed without the qualities of thoroughness and accuracy, and in all his studies was more anxious to learn the truth than to establish any foregone conclusion. His death will be a serious loss to the world of scholarship in this country and Europe.

HARVEY S. WELD

Harvey S. Weld, for over thirty years sexton and clerk of the trustees of Plymouth Church, died on Thursday night at his home, No. 49 Willow-st., Brooklyn, at the age of seventy-nine. He had attended to all his duties this winter, and on the day of his death was at the church. Early in the evening he complained of pain in the region of the heart, and died a few hours later from heart disease, it is supposed. Mr. Weld was born in Guilford, Conn. TRIBUNE OFFICE, March 23.-1 s. m.-The movement in the barometer yesterday was irregular. Fair and clear weather prevailed. The temperature ranged between 58° and 35°, the average (48°4°) being 5°5° higher than on Primy. The rainfall for the week was 1.48 inches; of this total 1.05 inches fell on Wednesday. Clear or fair and warmer weather, followed by mereas-ing cloudiness and chances of rain, may be expected to-day in this city and vicinity.

DISCOVERIES AT ASSOS. The New-York members of the Archæologi-

cal Institute of America met last night at Columbia Col lege. Joseph Thacher Clarke, the director of the expedi tion to Assos, was present. Professor Henry Drisle presided. President Barndrd introduced Mr. Clarke, who spoke briefly, saying that the work of three years could hardly be condensed into ten minutes, but at the close of the evening he showed some stereopticon views giving some idea of what had been discovered at Assos. The researches, he said, had resulted in the obtaining of thoroughly clear fdeas of a Greek city. Its architecture hieratic, civic, military and funeral, had been laid bare as thoroughly as at Pompell, but on a larger and more interesting scale. Its grand temple was Doric, the The masquerade ball given at the British Legation last evening was attended by 150 guests invited verbally. This company arrived before nine and left at twelve o'clock. There was little dancing, the chief amusement being the efforts to penetrate the disguise given by dominos and masks. All for the members of the diplomatile corps were invited, and the other guests were mostly young people, the fow married ladies present acting as chaperones. The ladies that a committee be appointed to report at a meeting to be held in a fortnight a scheme for the establishment of such a branch. This was adopted.

BLOWS FOLLOW A POLITICAL DESCUSSION The Democratic City Committee at Jersey City early yesterday morning, decided to support Dr. McGill, for Mayor, against Isaac Taussig, the present Mayor. This decision resulted in an angry discussion in a grog shop, and Freeholder Ed ward Cavanaugh struck Freeholder John Lillis Cavanaugh's friends also joined in the assault, and Lillis was badly beaten. Assemblyman Edward O'Donnell, in playing the part of peace-maker, was also assaulted.

PROTESTING AGAINST ROAD BONDS. The property-owners of Southfield, Staten Island, held a public meeting at Clifton last night to con sider the illegal road bonds, amounting to $70,000. Resolutions were adopted protesting against the bill at Albany to legalize the bonds. A similar meeting of the property-owners of Middletown was held at Stapleton the bonds in that town amount to $40,000.

TRUSTEES DISCHARGING A SEXTON. The Board of Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Port Elizabeth, N. J., on Friday night discharged Sexton Floyd. The principal charge agains him was of "lying about and slandering the pa-Rev. W. L. Holmes." The sexton could not establish the charges made against the pastor and will probably be ex-pelled from the church. The sexton will consult a lawyer before giving up the keys, and it is probable that the church doors will have to be broken open this morning.

Jambo na a Make-shitt. Makers of imitation porous plasters, in their efforts to be Makers of initiation persons must be relations articles, invariably strive to do so on the reputation of Alleock's, and they resort to all manner of devices in order to fabricate comparisons, and thus attract attention. Even Jumbo is brought into use as a make-shift. "Jumbo dont't want them." No Alleock's Porous Plasters would have no effect on his thick hide, but for all mankind they are the best external remody made. Tried for thirty years and not found wanting, as thou-sands upon thousands of cures attest Jumbo's keeper, if in need of a plaster for him, should try some of those wonderful so called improvements in plasters made of new and powerful ingredients just discovered—"rub ber and rod pepper"—a remarkable combination of drugs. They may be fit for an elephant's given but neating else.

All so-called porons plasters are imitations of Allcock's, and imitators should not fail to visit the menageric and study their prototypes in the monkeys' cage.

CURE OF SCIATIO RHEUMATISM.

93 CLINTON-ST., New-YORK CITT, } March 18, 1884. } Two years ago I was taken with a dreadful pain in my thigt and hip. My doctor pronounced it sciatics, or inflammation of the main nerve of the thigh. Oh, how it ached and how I suffered! It was worse than ten toothackes. I was under treatment for upward of a month, but could get no permanent relief. I finally got six Alleock's Plasters and put them on my thigh and hip. The effect was magical. In less than 24 hours I felt better. I continued to improve every day, and at the end of the week I felt entirely well and resomed my bustness. At the end of two weeks I took the plasters off and washed my thigh and limb with a strong brine of sait and water. I had no more trouble until this winter. Then I had another attack, and sent out to buy six more Allcock's Plasters. The drugglat sent mo six strengthening plasters-not Alleock's. Not knowing the difference, I put them on, and they did not do me one atom of good, though I were them two days. They are absolutely worthless. I then sent out—not being able to walk—and got six of Alleock's Porons Plasters. Those I applied as before, and they cured me completely. As soon as I was well I called on the draggist who had cheated me and gave him an excertation which he will never forget.

Two White Elephants.

The first Oriental white elephant ever seen in this country was landed in New-York last Thursday. He is 4 feet Sinches high and weighs 2,000 nounds-exactly 200 nounds more than a family ton of coal. He is called "Light of Asia," and seems to be also light of weight. But as he is only six years old, the proprietor who owns him says he will grow. Still he may not. There is a native American white elephant, 39 years old, which hasn't grown an inch since it was born in 1845. It is is so light, in fact, and wanting in the power of self-assection. that it may be carried for weeks on the back of a sick man without his ever suspecting its presence. On the other hand Benson's Capcine Porous Plasters multiply their good works and win the highest praise from the growing multitudes who use them. In any and every case where a plaster is wanted at all, Benson's is worth ten times its cost. People readily discover this, without the side-light of "testimonials," possibly as "original" as the venerable fossils to which they refer. In promptness of action, pleasantness to the wearer, and penetrating, curative power, one Benson's plaster is equal to a dozen of any other kind whatever. If you want merely so many square feet of adhesive material, buy the cheapest plas-ter on the market. If you desire a highly medicinal, highly indorsed article—one certain to cure disease, and do it quickly, you will follow the world's example and buy Benson's.

One word more: Be sure you get the genuine. Look for the word Capcine, which is cut in it. Certain parties, who are doing their best to degrade pharmacy, are sparing no effort to condict the manifer are sparing no effort to delude the public into the purchase of worthless initations of the genuine Benson's plasfer. Steer clear of tinted and blankered white elephants. Benson's plasters always main-tain their high quality. Price, 25 cents.
